

A LONG STORY ABOUT OUR BABY

© Picture: Jennifer Rohrbacher

by Project.tgthr

On stage Eevi Kinnunen and Olivia Ronzani decide to pursue their dream of having a baby – one way or another. They chase their dreams, sperm, and the right conditions. Their thoughts become entangled, and their bodies continue where rational thinking ends. This autofictional work of dance and embodied storytelling opens a space to dream, imagine, and celebrate queer ways of making, creating and finding family.
